

Le Sporting Club Du Sanctuaire

Montreal, Quebec, Canada

This club had three tennis courts on the roof of a parking garage at an adjacent property of a luxury condominium.

The court surface was beyond repair and the owners desired to upgrade the tennis facility to attract better tennis players.

Global was engaged to design subsurface irrigated Har-Tru tennis courts which also required a new drainage system to accommodate the change in elevation of the court surface.