

Town Tennis Member Club

New York, New York

The Town Tennis Member Club is one of the oldest rooftop clubs in Manhattan. It was originally clay, then converted to a cushioned court, then to a hard court and most recently to a modern sub-surface irrigated HydroGrid court.

The membership has grown to capacity since the conversion to HydroGrid and the renovation of the club house, both completed in 1999-2000.