

Ottawa Community High School

Ottawa, Illinois

Due to a desire of the School District Administration and Board members to develop a truly excellent high school tennis facility, GS&TDG was retained to prepare a plan and related documentation. The layout was constrained by existing site conditions, but GS&TDG was able to break up the courts into two batteries and plan for future spectator amenities.

Awards for Design Excellence

2005 United States Tennis Association
2005 American Sports Builders Association