

Sandy Brook Park

Township of Freehold, New Jersey

These tennis courts at Sandy Brook Park were unusable and unsafe due to the aging and cracking of the asphalt leveling course. It was determined that pulverization of the existing pavement and its reuse as an aggregate base course would be the most economical approach to the court rehabilitation.

After the courts were rehabilitated, their use has increased to the point where players must wait for a court on the weekends.