

West Chester State University

West Chester, Pennsylvania

These twelve tennis courts were constructed in 1976 with the WESCO emulsified asphalt leveling course system of construction. The courts endured well until 1997 when the University decided to rehabilitate the courts and redesign the lighting system to improve the safety for the players. Drainage was added and the slope of the courts increased to improve the drainage. Global was engaged to provide the rehabilitation expertise.