

Eric Erschen Residence

St. Croix, USVI

The Court

The Site

This tennis court was strategically located on a side hill above the principal residence with a commanding view of the Caribbean Sea and famous Buck Island.

The site features a sugar mill as a court entertainment center, shelter, restroom and storage facility.

The court is illuminated with an environmentally designed lighting system to maintain the light on the tennis court without polluting the surrounding area with distracting light.