

Westervelt Residence

Franklin Lakes, New Jersey

This court was carefully located in a wooded area on the property to protect many specimen trees surrounding the court. The fence system was designed to blend with the trees surrounding the court. A seating terrace was constructed adjacent to the court for player and spectator enjoyment.

A storage shed was erected adjacent to the court and was designed to blend with the natural environment.