

Buena Vista Palace

In The Walt Disney World Resort
Lake Buena Vista, Florida

These courts are a focal point from all hotel rooms facing the Walt Disney world village. It was therefore necessary to contain all the light on the tennis courts so that hotel guests have a clear view of the village.

The tennis courts were designed to provide recreational play for hotel guests as well as a venue for small tennis tournaments.

Awards for Design Excellence
1986 US Tennis Court & Track Builders Association