

U.S. Olympic Training Center

Chula Vista, California

The U.S. Olympic Training Center was designed to train U.S. Athletes in each of the summer game sports.

The Tennis Center is designed to include hard courts, clay courts and grass courts. It includes a separate building to house the instructors and a conference room as well as restroom facilities.